12 v. Plaintiff,) FURTHER ORDER RE: TRIAL DATE
13 APPLE, INC.,)
14 Defendant.)
15 _____)16 The parties in a criminal case recently confirmed that they intend to go to trial during the 17 same time as the GPNE v. Apple trial. The Court is willing to keep the trial dates in both cases and 18 wait to see which, if any, case actually goes to trial. If both cases go to trial, the Court is open to a
19 trial trailing procedure as practiced in California state courts or to splitting each trial day and trying 20 the criminal case in the morning and the patent case in the afternoon. However, if GPNE and 21 Apple do not want to split trial days and want more certainty, the Court is also willing to move this 22 trial to September, October or November 2014. The Court would like to discuss the parties'
23 preferences and availability at a specially set status conference on Friday, May 16 anytime between 24 9 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. The parties may participate by telephone. The parties shall contact Ms.
